SCHOOL REPORT.

DISTRICT No. 1.

JONATHAN F. CILLEY, Prudential Committee.

Two terms; Miss Carrie L. Morse, of Henniker, teacher. A first class school in every respect. Excellent order, examinations satisfactory, and a very neat register returned. Number of pupils not absent first term, five; second term, two. On the Roll of Honor we find the names of Eva C. Eastman; Hattie M. Flanders, Hattie M. Garland, Nellie M. Martin, Nellie S. Paige. Second term, Hattie M. Flanders and Frank C. Garland.

DISTRICT No. 2.

WALLACE MORSE, Prudential Committee.

Three terms. First and second taught by Annie M. Ray, of Hillsboro, a teacher of experience—good scholar—“terrible nervous.” Everything considered the school done well, and we can well compliment the district on securing the services of this excellent teacher. Number not absent first term, seven; second term, two. On the Roll of Honor, first term, Belle Rogers; second term, Belle Rogers and Neilie Rogers.

Third term taught by Miss Vira N. Lovering, of Weare. This teacher is lacking in “snap,” force and go-ahead necessary for a first-class teacher. I am afraid Miss L. was looking after the money rather than the advancement of the school. At my last visit everything was confusion; too much intimacy between teacher and scholars. Number of pupils absent, none.

DISTRICT No. 3.

TIMOTHY PEASLEE, Prudential Committee.

First term taught by Miss Etta L. Huntington, of Henniker. This teacher is slow but sure, well educated, order and discipline good, and the closing examination showed good progress. Number not absent, one. Register returned correct.

Second term taught by Nellie S. Dickey, of Derry. With experience and training Miss D. will make one of the best of teachers—a good English scholar, and a delver in Latin and Greek. The order good, and examination all that could be asked for. Register correct. Number not absent, none.

DISTRICT No. 4.

ALDEN P. FARRAR, Prudential Committee.

First term taught by Marietta J. Whitcomb of Henniker. This term of school was a success,—order good. Number not absent, eight. On the Roll of Honor—Mary M. Woods, Julia A. Rice, Everett M. Colby, Almon B. Colby, Hattie M. Rice, Emma F. Rice.

Second term. Miss Clara M. Hurlin of Antrim, teacher. School still in session. At my last visit, made a few days previous to writing this, I found quite a number of scholars absent. The remaining ones seemed quite restless, twisting and turning in their seats, making too much noise. Miss H. is a perfect lady, well-educated, and capable of imparting knowledge to her scholars, and I do not hesitate to say, the scholars made a fair degree of progress. School too long by three weeks.

DISTRICT No. 5.

CURTIS B. CHILDS, Prudential Committee.

Three terms. First and second taught by Miss Clara C. Gutterson of Henniker. Miss G. is universally liked by parents and scholars in this district, and the improvement was good, also the order. On account of sickness, the teacher was unable to finish her second term. Number not absent, eleven.

On the Roll of Honor, first term, Geo. P. Farrar, Willie W. Farrar, Arthur A. Farrar, Lizzie Brady, Sarah Mittleman, Lizzie A. McCoy, Cora B. Poor, Carrie M. Patterson, Etta Shattuck, Agnes L. Watkins and Lucinda J. Weseomb.

Second term. Eddie M. Sargent, Willis H. Robbins, Willie H. Farrar, George R. Farrar, Emma A. Newman, Hattie M. Rice, Sarah Mittlemann, Cora B. Poor, Amy E. Colby, Julia A. Rice.

Third term. Curtis B. Childs of Henniker, teacher. Curtis is not a very showy teacher, but he has the necessary requirements in his head; not as particular about the order as some, but he can explain an example in arithmetic scientifically. I was unable to be present at the final examination, but I do not hesitate in pronouncing the school a success. Number not absent, one. On the Roll of Honor, Willie C. Goss.

DISTRICT No. 6.

ENOCH L. COLBY, Prudential Committee.

Two terms. Miss Minervia M. Patten, of Henniker, taught two successive terms in this district. This school passed the best examination in town; order perfect; a splendid class in mental arithmetic. The district was fortunate in securing this excellent teacher. Number not absent, first term, five; second term, three. On the Roll of Honor, Ella M. Connor, Hattie Clark, Nellie H. Patterson and Herman D. Gregor.

Second term, Walter C. Connor, Herman D. Patterson and Nellie H. Patterson.

DISTRICT No. 7.

C. C. FRENCH, Prudential Committee.

Two terms, taught by Mrs. Jennie G. Dodge of Henniker. This teacher lacks "snap" and go-ahead—too slow and moderate to keep order in school room. I understand my remarks caused displeasure on the part of a few present at the final examination. I am very sorry that I meant just what I said; and, in order to have a successful school in this district you must do away with politics, rings and red tape. Number not absent first term, nine. On the roll of honor, Ida Colby, Vevia Wiggins, Carrie Colby, Alfred Ray, George Wiggins, Tappin Wiggins Levi French, George Colby, and Lillie Hone—two absent. Second term seventeen. On the roll of honor, Levi French George Wiggins, Tappin Wiggins and Alfred Ray. Register returned correct.

DISTRICT No. 8.

GEORGE HALLADAY, Prudential Committee.

Two Terms. First taught by Miss Elvira J Buckman of Henniker. The school done very well; order not quite up to the standard. Number not absent four. On the roll of honor, Willie Dow, Charlie Dow, Liudly Gage. Register correct.

Second term taught by George W. Dodge of Henniker. He is perfectly at home in this school; the order good, and final examination entirely satisfactory. Register perfect, Number not absent, two. On the Roll of Honor, Edna M. Constantine.

DISTRICT No. 10.

JAS. B. BROWN, Prudential Committee.

Three terms. First term taught by Miss Ida Brown of Henniker. A perfect lady, very fine scholar, destined to make one of our first teachers; order perfect and recitations splendid, model register. Number not absent, three. On the Roll of Honor, Willie J. McLean, Arthur J. McLean, Abbie M. Eaton, Alice J. Huntington, May E. McLean, Edna M. Newton.

Second term Lillie M. Cass of Tilton, teacher; a lady of fine mental abilities. This was Miss C's first attempt at teaching, and the school made very good progress, everything considered. It would have been better for school and teacher, if a "very" few individuals had minded their own business; "A word to the wise, etc. Number not absent 0. Register correct.

Third term — this school is still in session taught by W. D. Wyman of Hillsborough, a thorough scholor, all nerve and muscle, will make an extra teacher. Although I have not visited this school I hear every thing is prosperous and bids fair for a successful term.

DISTRICT No. 11.

A. P. NICHOLS, Prudential Committee.

Two terms. First term taught by Miss H. Francis Perry of Henniker. This school passed a good examination, good order, and a model register. Number not absent, eight. On the Roll of Honor, Jennie Whitcomb, Carrie Whitcomb, May Everett, Rose Noyes, May Rice, Allie Noyes, Dannie Noyes, Hilton Gould.

Second term taught by W. D. Wyman of Hillsboro. At my first visit I found scholars and teachers at work; this being the largest school in town Mr. Wyman's time was all taken up. The examination satisfactory; the best of order. Register correct. Number not absent, ten. On the Roll of Honor, Julia A. Flanders, Anna Rice, May Rice, Carrie Steele, Jennie Whitcomb, Elmer Nichols, John Rice, Charles Steele, Sumner Whitecomb, Carrie Whitecomb.

DISTRICT No. 12.

W.M. H. GILMORE and E. F. GILMORE, Prudential Committee.

Two terms. Miss Carrie L. Morse taught both terms. Miss M has taught four terms of school in this town within a year; good evidence she is appreciated. This is a good school and some very good scholars attending. The examinations good; perfect order, and a very neat register returned. Number attending to vocal music, thirteen. Number not absent, first term, ten; second term two. On the roll of honor; first term, Nellie M. Martin, Alsada Chase, Ella F. Martin, Carrie A Putney, Belle Howe, Charley Martin, Luther A. Clark, Orin Chase and Eva Eastman. Second term, Nellie M. Martin and Luther A. Clark.

DISTRICT NO. 13.

GEORGE H. DODGE, Prudential Committee.

Two terms. First term taught by Miss Abbie F. Dodge of Henniker. Good scholar, experienced teacher. School although very small (four boys), made a fair degree of improvement. Number not absent, four. On the Roll of Honor, Herman W. Mathews, Grant E. Mathews and Myron W. Dow.

Second term, Ada M. Carr of Henniker, teacher. A very successful term; boys inclined to be a little "rogueish"; the examination good. Register correct. Number not absent two. Roll of Honor includes the Names of all pupils who have been present every half day of a term without being tardy.

GENERAL REMARKS.

The school houses in town, with two exceptions, (districts number six and thirteen), are in very good condition. District number four, "We Came, We Saw, We Conquered;" and the antique structure mentioned in my previous report is numbered with the things that were. You will always find people who oppose building a new school house; we found them in this district, but after wasting time and "money" they gave up "battle" as the fox gave up the grapes. The Prudential Committees of district number seven and eleven, have furnished the school with a very fine set of outline maps. State maps furnished districts five, eight and eleven. As this map is very essential in the school room, I hope the P. Committees of the other districts will take some action, at their annual meeting to procure it.

In closing this report I wish to extend thanks to the Citizens of Henniker, for the respect shown me, and the kind manner with which I have been every where received and supported. I am still independent and impartial in all school matters, and shall stand by every thing herein contained.

GEO. H. SANBORN,

S. S. Committee of Henniker.
